Subject: Urgent Request for Review of Claim Rejection – Violation of Natural Justice and Insurance Ethics

Policy No.: ASHP202400001607

Respected Sir/Madam,

I, Vikas Gandhi, resident of D-20, Dayanand Nagar, Ghaziabad – 201001, am writing to express my deep concern and disappointment regarding the rejection of my claim under the above-mentioned policy.

When I purchased this health insurance policy and paid my premium in good faith, I entered into a contract based on trust — a promise that in the event of a genuine medical need, I would receive support. Unfortunately, that moment did arrive. I contracted a serious infection, was hospitalized for one full day, and underwent surgical treatment, medications, and necessary diagnostic tests. The total cost incurred was ₹34,661, all of which is well-documented and attached.

According to the basic principles of natural justice and fairness:

- I fulfilled my obligation by timely paying the premium.
- I did not misuse the policy or raise a fraudulent claim.
- My treatment was genuine, medically necessary, and confirmed by the discharge summary and hospital records.
- I had no control over the infection that led to hospitalization.

Then why was I denied the rightful reimbursement?

The infection was neither elective nor avoidable. The very purpose of health insurance is to help individuals cope with such sudden, unfortunate, and medically justified events.

Denying my claim after I acted in good faith undermines the essence of insurance itself. It sends a message that even genuine policyholders cannot rely on the promise they paid for.

I urge you to review this case thoroughly, not merely from a technical perspective, but from a humanitarian and ethical angle. I request that my claim of ₹34,661 be honored and reimbursed, in accordance with:

- The terms of the policy,
- The principles of natural justice, and
- The moral obligation of the insurer to protect its clients.

Attached:

- Discharge Summary
- Medical reports
- Hospital bills
- Claim application

I sincerely hope this matter will receive your urgent and fair consideration.

Sincerely,

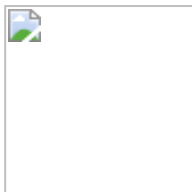

Vikas Gandhi

Good Evening!

Thank you for your email and for providing an update regarding my claim. I appreciate the careful review of my submission, although I am disappointed to learn that my expenses related to the treatment are not covered due to the waiting period.

I will gather the biopsy report and send it to you shortly for validation. I hope this information might lead to a re-evaluation of my claim.

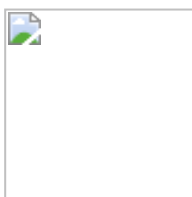

Additionally, I would like to express my concern regarding the resolution process. I did not expect my case to fall into the mentioned categories of escalation without a satisfactory resolution. I sincerely hope that this can be reconsidered.

Thank you for the resources provided regarding further avenues for grievance redressal. I will take note of that in case we cannot reach a fair resolution.

Final Grievance Letter to Chief Grievance Officer (Step 3 - Acko)

To:

Ms. Reena Evans

Chief Grievance Officer

Acko General Insurance Limited

Subject: Final Grievance Escalation – Rejection of Claim Due to Alleged Waiting Period Clause

Dear Ms. Evans,

I am writing to formally escalate my grievance as per Step 3 of Acko's Grievance Redressal Mechanism. I have exhausted Step 1 and Step 2, but my concern remains unresolved even after 30 days.

Policyholder Details

- Name: Vikas Gandhi
- Mobile: 9911198000
- Email: 9amdeal@gmail.com
- Claim Reference No.: [Insert if available]
- Policy No.: [Insert if available]

Issue Summary

My health insurance claim was denied on the grounds of a waiting period exclusion under clause 4.1.2, for a condition allegedly falling under the 2-year waiting period for specific illnesses.

However, I strongly contest this decision due to the following reasons:

1. Emergency and Biopsy-Based Diagnosis

- The condition treated was Lichen Sclerosus (Balanitis Xerotica Obliterans).
- This is a chronic and progressive dermatological condition affecting the foreskin and glans.
- It was medically advised for immediate circumcision based on symptoms and confirmed by the attached biopsy report (Report ID: V-6630/25 from Max Hospital, Vaishali, dated 30/06/2025).
- The histopathology report clearly confirms inflammatory skin disease and explicitly rules out any malignancy, dysplasia, or granuloma.

2. Not a Listed Critical Illness

- The exclusion under Clause 4.1.2 refers to "specific illnesses" such as hernia, cataracts, hemorrhoids, etc.
- Lichen Sclerosus is not specifically mentioned in the list provided under the policy document.

3. Lack of Prior Symptoms

- I had no previous history of this disease, and it manifested suddenly, with significant pain, making it a necessary and justified medical expense.

◆ Relief Sought

In view of the above, I respectfully request that:

- My claim be re-examined in light of the medical urgency and diagnosis report.
- Acko provide a clear justification with reference to the exact policy clause and disease list, if the rejection is upheld.
- Reimbursement of my hospitalization and surgical treatment expenses be approved in line with policy benefits.

◆ Attached Documents

- Copy of Biopsy Report from Max Hospital
- Prescription & Discharge Summary (if not yet submitted, mention "Available on Request")
- Communication copies from Step 1 and Step 2 Grievance

I hope Acko will respond fairly, considering the facts and medical necessity. If I do not receive a satisfactory resolution within 7 working days, I will be constrained to escalate this to the IRDAI and Insurance Ombudsman.

Sincerely,

Vikas Gandhi

“Extremely disappointed with Acko Health Insurance. Despite providing all valid medical documents including a biopsy report, my hospitalization claim was rejected citing vague ‘waiting period’ reasons — without clearly listing the illness or showing where it is excluded in the policy. There has been a clear lack of empathy and transparency in the claim settlement process. Insurance is meant to support policyholders in tough times — not abandon them due to technicalities. Would NOT recommend Acko to anyone looking for reliable health coverage. I am now forced to escalate the matter to IRDAI and the Insurance Ombudsman.”
